He is likely to be confined several days on account of his injury.

Accidents, Then Fines. Much to the surprise of everybody else present, George Long, white, who had been on trial for housebreaking and larceny, leaped up and fled from the court house Wednesday afternoon on hearing the verdict, "not guilty."

It seems that there was another case pending against Long, and it was doubtless this that caused him to flee from the court room so precipitately when the verdict was announced.

PIANO FOR SALE—Full 7 octave, Square Fischer, in excellent condition. Price reasonable. Mrs. A. G. Brice.

Serious Fire at Lando. A serious fire occurred at the Ma-netta mills at Lando Wednesday morning. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a cloth being slipping out of place and transmitting a spark to a pile of blankets nearby. These light and inflammable goods quickly took fire, and the flames soon spread, causing a loss of about $20,000. It is supposed. The fire was confined to the finishing room, the prompt services of the fire brigade preventing its spread. Although the fire was serious and the destruction great, the management hopes to have the mill in running order Monday morning.

NOTICE—The county board of sewers adjourned Thursday afternoon to meet again next Tuesday, the 3rd inst., at 10 o'clock. J. O. Darity, Co. Supervisor.

In the Mayor's Court. The opening number at the mayor's court yesterday morning was one involving a little bit of domestic infidelity. Walter Price, colored, attempted to dissuade his wife, Sylvia, from attending a recent function at the "hall," but Sylvia likes a good time as well as her husband does, and she was too good to dissuade him. When both appeared at the function, the utilities were on each declared, and in the pitched battle that ensued Walter received several cuts. Alex Evans was the bearer of pacificatory tidings to the irate husband, but his efforts met with the usual fate of the peace-maker, and he became involved in the rumpus. The mayor imposed a fine of $7.50 upon Price to see what effect it will have in preserving peace in the household.

Next appeared Ed Dixon, Fred Heath and Vander Smith, three huckmen, charged with violating the ordinance regulating the conduct of jackmen at the passenger stations. All acknowledged their guilt and attributed it to an overwelling desire to get business. Two dollars each was the restraining effort put forth by the mayor.

Peter Wilson, an employee of the new Nicholson Hotel, explained the presence of his unlicensed hawk on the streets at night by declaring that "It was excessive loyalty to his patron that caused him to do the night train and convey passengers to the hotel. The court, however, while it believes in friendship and loyalty, refused to take stock in this story. Two dollars was the fine imposed.

Frank Blake and Will Franklin, while waiting for a late train a few evenings ago, got into an altercation and one word led to another till the air grew highly sulphurous. Allusions to family history and the like were bandied about with surprising carelessness; and the affair terminated in a personal encounter. Ten dollars each or thirty days on the chain was the dose prescribed.

Death of Mr. Nettles.

The following communication, announcing the death of Mr. J. T. Nettles, father of Mrs. John S. Lindsey of this city, is taken from The State: Camden, March 27. Mr. John T. Nettles, Sr., died at his home here this morning in the 60th year of his age. For many months he has been a patient sufferer from chronic rheumatism. It having gradually changed him from a strong, healthy man to a frail, bent body. His death was expected, and all his family were with him when the end came.

He was born in this county and spent all of his days within its bounds. For many years he conducted a successful mercantile business in Camden and his figure was more familiar on the streets than was his. He retired from business several years ago because of his infirmity and has since patiently awaited the end. His lastness was not conducted on a large scale, but no merchant ever conducted a business on a higher plane. He was held in high esteem by his business associates and was beloved by old and young. His remains will be interred in the Quakerbury ground tomorrow at 3 o'clock, and the service will be conducted from the Baptist church, of which he was a faithful member. His wife, who was Miss Laura Holmes, and two daughters, Mrs. John Lindsey and Mrs. Hamilton, of Columbia, and one son, Mr. John T. Nettles, of Camden, survive him.

Begamit Captured in Georgia. Robert McArthur, white, who is wanted in this county for bigamy, is under arrest at La Grange, Ga., and Deputy Sheriff Carroll has gone to Georgia after him. It will be remembered that McArthur had been released on a bond of $20,000, furnished by Mr. W. G. Nichols, and that he fled just on the eve of his trial. McArthur has been at large for about a year.

Republican Party Committee.

Washington, March 27. What may be regarded as the final pronouncement against tariff revision at the present session of congress is contained in a letter from Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means committee.

In reply to a communication sent him by Representative McCall, on behalf of the Massachusetts delegation in congress, The Massachusetts view is presented that conditions have so changed as to demand change in the tariff.

In his reply, Mr. Payne first calls attention to the method by which tariff legislation must be brought about, by a concurrent view of the majority of the party in power.

He declares that the people have not forgotten the disaster politically and commercially which followed the tariff change of 1892 and concluding with the reasoning: "Congress is not prepared to review the tariff schedules in that calm, judicial frame of mind so necessary to the preparation of a tariff act at a time so near the congressional elections."

The Hingley bill was the most successful of that bill to the present day. It would be unfortunate should any pre-emptive action in the future result in a temporary reversal in the policy of tariff reduction.

It cannot, therefore, agree with your delegation that it would be best at the present session of congress to enter upon a consideration of the tariff with a view to its revision and reduction. While this is my individual opinion, I have reason to believe that it is also the judgment of a decided majority of the committee on ways and means.

Lowville Letter.

Lowville, March 27.—Although spring is dead, winter weather, is for the prevailing. The cold weather began to appear last Friday night, the temperature decreasing several degrees during the night.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church the fourth Saturday at 2 o'clock. It is the intention of the pastor and members to have a meeting every fourth Saturday, as they think that, the better attend to the business of the church than on the fourth Sunday after service.

Mrs. Tom Speck and Misses I. W. L. and Addie Erwin Moore, of Lowville, visited the families of Messrs. J. and R. W. Abell last week.

Several of our townsmen are attending court this week. Being in the honor roll of Lowville High School for the seventh scholastic month, ending March 27th. The Creighton Case Delayed.

Greenwood, March 27.—There were no sessions of the court hearing the case of the Rev. C. W. Creighton today. The Rev. W. T. Duncan, the presiding officer, and also presiding officer of this (Cokesbury) district, called the court to order at 10 o'clock this morning, but an adjournment was had immediately because of the illness of the stenographer for the court, Mrs. Aldrich. Miss Myrtle Haskins, stenographer for the afternoon session, was also present.

Mr. Creighton states that the objection to the presence of his stenographer yesterday was "waived," is correct. His stenographer also remained because he had to do one to put her out, and incidentally paid a high tribute to the courage and nerve of Miss Davis, who was employed by him and who remained despite the pointed remarks that she was not entitled to remain. Mr. Creighton was very emphatic in calling attention to this service. All were invited to attend. The meeting on Saturday for preaching will not take the place of preaching on the fourth Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Mrs. Tom Speck and Misses I. W. L. and Addie Erwin Moore, of Lowville, visited the families of Messrs. J. and R. W. Abell last week. Several of our townsmen are attending court this week. Rich Men's Insurance.
Men with large insurance formerly scattered it among many companies says April World's Work. Mr. John Wynnaker, for example, has $1,500,000 insured in six different policies.

The first $1,000,000 policy ever issued was taken out in 1887 by Mr. George W. Vanderbilt, at the age of 35, in the Mutual. It is a 20-payment life, 30-year distribution policy; that is he is to pay a yearly premium of $3,000 for twenty years. As the end of this time he will receive a paid-up policy of $1,000,000, and a cash dividend. If the policy had been taken out twenty years ago, at the same rate, he would have paid by this time the sum of $700,000 in premiums, which at 4 per cent compounded interest would amount to nearly $1,000,000.

Mr. Wynnaker recently insured man in the Mutual, however, is probably Mr. L. Rodman Wynnaker, of Philadelphia, who carries $2,000,000 in the Mutual, in addition to insurance in other companies. Mr. Wynnaker first took out his insurance in the Mutual, amounting to $200,000, at the age of 34. At 39 he increased it by two additional policies of $100,000 and $500,000. Five years later, at 41, he took two additional policies, one of $1,000,000 and the other of $200,000. This makes his total insurance in the company $2,000,000 on which he pays a yearly premium of $43,225.

The Wynnaker family in Philadelphia carries a total of $3,500,000 in life insurance. In the world.

The large policies, of course, cost more proportionately than smaller ones. Straight life insurance of $1,000 at the age of 30 costs $20 a year. For the same man, a 20-year policy of the same kind would cost just five hundred times as much, or $10,000.
